A GREETING TO FRESHMEN

It is a pleasure to welcome all new students to the State Teachers College, Indiana, Pennsylvania. This Teachers College is maintained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for a very distinct purpose, namely, to train teachers for the public schools of the Commonwealth. The fact that you have entered here is assumed as complete evidence that you have definitely decided to enter the teaching profession. If you are to become good teachers, it will be necessary for you to develop intelligent, sympathetic leadership, sound scholarship, broad culture, high ideals and skill in teaching. The administration and faculty of the college will be extremely anxious to do their full part toward this development. However, more important than this is your own atti-tude toward your work here.

We hope that you will start with enthusiasm and finish your course with a record that will justify the hearty endorsement and recommendation of the college. Your fitness for complete entrance into the profession will be determined to a large extent by the habits you form and the attitudes you develop during your first year. You have chosen Indiana. It is our hope that you will add to the splendid spirit of the college, and that your stay here will be happy and profitable.

TO THE WOMEN

"See first that the design is wise and just; That ascertained, pursue it resolutely."

The State Teachers College at Indiana, Pennsylvania, for more than half a century has sent from its halls, women of sterling qualities, refinement and culture, to hold positions of honor and trust in their respective fields of service.

Yours is the opportunity to join this professional group; by honest, earnest endeavor to develop a personality that stands for individuality, reliability and inspiration.

May you have many happy, challenging experiences in this your pursuit. Indiana cordially welcomes you.

Hope Stewart, Dean of Women.

TO THE MEN

The Indiana State Teachers College welcomes any graduate of an approved or accredited high school, who desires to prepare to teach, if he is ambitious, conscientious, and industrious, and at the same time believes that the profession of teaching is worthy of his high efforts and his constant devotion.

I sincerely hope that every man enrolled in the college, has come with an earnest purpose, and that he will work hard and play hard, and find pleasure in both. The college wants to help him realize every worthy ambition and it will gladly do its full share toward that end, on condition that he will do his.

W. M. Whitmyre, Dean of Men.

HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL

Indiana is a comparatively old teacher training institution. Having passed the half century mark, a school may be said to be firmly established. And so it is with somewhat of satisfaction that we note the date of the founding of Indiana as May 17, 1875.

On that date the school was formally ovened under the direction of Dr. E. B. Fairfield, the first principal. The entire school at that time was concentrated in one building, John Sutton Hall, so uamed in honor of the first president of the board of trustees. The physical equipment of Indiana during the first quarter century was enlarged by the erection of Clark Hall, residence hall for men, and Wilson Hall, a teacher training center.

A notable addition to Indiana's material equipment came in 1903 with the erection of Leonard Hall, a large class room and laboratory building, and an extensive addition to John Sutton Hall. In more recent years expansion has been furthered by the addition of dormitory annexes, the enlargement of Recreation Hall, a dining room annex, and a modern Power Plant.

Since being placed on a college basis in the spring of 1927 with the power to grant degrees in five different fields, Indiana has felt the need of a larger material equipment. And so in the spring of 1928 the new gymnasium was formally opened and with its opening, facilities for physical education were such that the program in that department could be intensified and broadened.

The new Arts Building was completed last spring and was formally dedicated in March 1931. It houses three defartments: Commerce, Art, and Home Economics. The building is thoroughly equipted to do the work of these special departments, and is one of the best of its kind to be found anywhere in the state.

The new West Parlor Annex was completed this summer. Our former students who have had the experience of waiting in the rain in bad weather for the doors to open to the dining room will appreciate this new addition to our physical plan. The new cloak room facilities will be appreciated by all.

The faculty and student body have under their control and management, a farm just outside the borough of Indiana, upon which has just recently been erected a very substantial building which is known as the "school lodge." This building is available for the use of students and faculty members at all seasons of the year. It is a splendid place to go for an outing and we hope that the students will take the opportunity to make very good use of this playground, as well as of the lodge.

The material progress made by Indiana in the first half century may be read in her increased number of buildings, in her large and growing alumni roll, and in her broadened program of curricula and activities.

These splendid achievements of Indiana in a material way are inseparably allied with the efforts and lives of the men and women, who, because of their splendid vision and ideals, were willing to sacrifice greatly in order that Indiana might survive many early struggles. Notable among those who gave much for the school was Jane E. Leonard who for nearly fifty years was teacher, counselor, and friend of Indiana students. Likewise inseparably linked with the history of those early days are the names of John Sutton, Silas M. Clark, and A. W. Wilson, the first three presidents of the Board of Trustees, all of whom built well for Indiana. Today Indiana is fortunate in having as the president of the Board of Trustees, Thomas Sutton, whose interest in the school is indeed an inspiration. Among others who have seen Indiana's future as ever greater than her present and so have step by step aided in moving forward towards a better institution have been past presidents Dr. D. J. Waller, Dr. James E. Ament, Dr. John A. H. Keith, and our present president, Dr. C. R. Foster.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

During the first semester of the 1930-1931 term, Dr. Foster put before the students of the college, the proposition of having student participation in government. The matter was put to student vote, passed, and the Student Council was formed.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS

Study hour is observed from 7:15 until 9:45 P.M. You will soon find this time all too short; make the most of it while it lasts. There is plenty of time during the day and on Saturday evening for social visits.

Each hall and cottage has a resident faculty member. You will soon meet her at a hall meeting. Consider her a friend and adviser.

A room is provided in the basement of John Sutton Hall for washing and pressing clothes. All laundry must be done at this room, which is open any time during the day.

Indiana is very fortunate in having three elevators in Sutton Hall. An admirable courtesy of stepping aside for guests of the school and for faculty has become established. Because of the great number of students on the third and fourth floors, students living on second floor are not expected to use the elevators.

DINING ROOM

Regular tables will be assigned as soon as possible. Faculty and upper classmen occupy the heads of tables. These places should be left vacant unless otherwise directed by persons in charge of the dining room.

No service is begun until after the grace bell has rung.

Breakfast is served from 7:00 until 7:30 A.M. Students may enter the dining room any time before 7:30. Lunch is served at 12:20 every day except Saturday when it is served at 12:00. Dinner is served at 6:00 P.M. every day except Sunday. Breakfast is served from 8:00 until 8:30 on Sunday. Dinner is at 1:00 and tea at 5:45 on Sunday.

STUDENT HEALTH

The health of the students is usually very fine, but if any illness occurs report at once to the infirmary which is located on fourth floor, south, of Sutton Hall. Do not endanger the health of others by remaining in your room when you are ill. Absence from classes because of illness is excused only by the nurses in charge of the infirmary. Infirmary hours are as follows and are adhered to except in cases of emergency.

> 7:30 to 10:30 A. M. 4:00 to 5:00 P. M. 7:00 to 8:00 P. M.

Visiting hours 4:00 to 5:00 P.M. daily except Sunday. Sunday hours 9:30 to 10:30 A.M.

LIBRARIES

The college library of many thousands of volumes is located on the first floor of Sutton Hall. Library hours are posted on all bulletin boards. Books are free to all students and may be taken from the library by signing at the attendant's desk.

The Indiana Free Library is located on North Ninth Street behind the Moore Hotel. Books are free to all students of Indiana County. Students not living in the county may join for the sum of fifty cents which entitles them to books throughout their college course.

General student assemblies are held in the gymnasium every month. Musical programs and outstanding speakers are featured at these assemblies. Each department holds its own monthly assembly at which time programs of interest to the special departments are presented.

BOOK ROOM

The book room is located in the main corridor of Sutton Hall. It is open from 8:00 A.M. until 4:30 P.M. to serve all students of the college. The book room carries a complete line of all student needs.

CASHING CHECKS

Checks are cashed in the college business office between 3:30 and 4:30 every day except Saturday when they are cashed between 10:30 and 11:30.

DAILY BULLETIN

The daily bulletin publishes all college announcements. It is posted on bulletin boards and read in all first period classes. Get the habit of reading the daily bulletin, for there is usually some announcement that concerns you.

All notices for the bulletin should be handed to Miss Duncan before four o'clock of the day preceding the date when they are to be made public.

STUDENT AID

Indiana has available three funds for student aid, the College Club Fund, the Student Loan Fund, and the Y. W. C. A. Scholarship. The Y. W. C. A. scholarship of fifty dollars is given to a student in the two-year curriculum in her fourth semester. Scholarship, leadership, and active work in the Y. W. C. A. are some of the requirements.

LECTURES

The college each year maintains a lecture course under the guldance of a lecture committee. During the last two years a few of the outstanding numbers were lectures by: Congresswoman Ruth Bryan Owens, Dr. Ralph Parlette, Dr. Hilton Iva Jones, Captain Dinsmore Upton, Dr. Freeman Guy, Princess Der Ling, and Arthur Pillsbury.

Interesting programs for both evening and assembly lectures and recitals are being planned for this year.

ORGANIZATIONS

Y. W. C. A.

"We unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people. In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow Him."—the purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

This organization was first organized at Indiana State Teachers College on May 22, 1897, under the influence of Miss Jane E. Leonard. At that meeting there were seventy-five girls present. For thirty-five years the association has carried on its work; it has grown steadily in membership and achievements.

"The girl and her growth" is the idea the Y. W. C. A. has tried to make the center of its student movement throughout the world. Our association keeps this in mind when planning for our various activities.

The regular meetings are held each week on Wednesday evening. The programs are varied so as to satisfy all types of girls here at school. A few of the outstanding meetings last year were the Candlelight Service for new members; Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Pre-Easter Services; annual banquet; fall and spring likes to the school lodge; Hallowe'en party; "get acquainted" parties in September and January; World Peace meeting; installation of the new cabinet; our sings—and many more, too numerous to mention.

The Y. W. C. A. also sponsors weekly teas held in the "Y" room from 4:00 to 5:00 every Friday afternoon. Its object is to bring about a fine social feeling among all the girls of the school.

The Y. W. C. A. at Indiana is the largest women's organization—the membership for the past year being 710. More acquaintances and friendships are made through it than through any other organization.

The work for the following year will be directed by the following Cabinet and their committees:

President Kathryn Meiser
Vice President Ruth Breene
Secretary Helen Rarie
Treasurer Marie Moore
Program Mildred Shepherd
Social Louise Sutton
Finance Dorothy Blackstone
Publications Lena Knepp
Publicity Frances Thompson

The above named officers and committee chairmen constitute the Cabinet, who, with the general sponsor, form the executive body of the organization.

All committees of the Y. W. C. A. are open to any member who wishes to join them. The following are the committees named for 1932-33:

Membership: To conduct membership drive; plan annual banquet for members; sponsor of Big and Little Sister Movement. Chairman, Ruth Breene; Verbel Buchanan, Katherine Donovan, Mary Donovan, Mary Weld, Phyllis Wright, Beth Marshall, Margaret Rohalley, H e 1 e n Rhodes, Mary McKeever, Dorothy Poole, Ruth Edwards, Sara Reed, Marjorie Lantz.

Chairman, Mildred Shepherd; Olive Mae Fornear, Jean Harbourt, Catherlne Williams, Marguerite Yoos, Margaret Hurley, Louise Glenn, Mary Tobin, Vera Kelley, Evelyn Keller, Pauline Puffinberger, Melissa White, Dorothy Grove, Margaret Guekert.

To the freshmen women we extend a welcome to Indiana and an invitation to become a part of our Y. W. C. A.

40

Y. M. C. A.

The Student Y. M. C. A. aims to provide an outlet for expression of the finer emotions and the upholding of the higher ideals. It is an organization open to ALL the men in the school; and fills a need for the social, intellectual and spiritual relationships of men who are apt to segregate so definitely into small groups that they lose the benefit of a "community of interests" in which all the men take part.

The Student Y. M. C. A. makes contacts with men from other institutions in the various college conferences. Indiana has gained recognition from the other college Y. M. C. A.'s, and the twenty-odd colleges of Western Pennsylvania have recently honored Indiana by selecting as president of the western area of the State Student Corneil the president of the local organ-Ization.

An exceptional program is planned for this year, and it deserves the support of all men students.

The officers for the year 1932-33 are: President D. Kenneth Winebrenner Vice President Clair Cogan Secretary Charles Russell Treasurer Mike Gendich

THE NEWMAN CLUB

In 1927 the Catholic men and women of Indiana State Teachers College organized a Newman Club. The spirit of the Newman Club is embodied in the following principles:

1. To bring into closer relationship the Catholic students of the College:

2. To foster and encourage among its members higher scholastic achievements;

3. To promote a wholesome spirit of friendship among all students and to stimulate co-operation in social functions and other college activities.

Several interesting features of the club are the picnics in the fall and the spring, the dinner dance, and the regular meetings at which there is usually an address on some selected subject. This club meets the third Tuesday of the month in Leonard Hall.

Officers for 1932-1933 are:

LEONARD LITERARY SOCIETY

The Leonard Literary Society is rich in tradition. It has a brilliant heritage. It is the oldest and largest student organization on the campus. The society is named for Miss Jane E. Leonard who was for forty-nine years preceptress and English teacher at Indiana. Miss Leonard was one of the charter members of the Literary organization. Governor John S. Fisher and Honorable Hubert Work were former members.

Approximately 1160 members contribute to its power, making it the means through which some of the finest professional talent in the country is presented, thus bringing immeasurable cultural values in entertainment.

The Women's Athletic Association is one of the largest organizations on the campus, and for a number of years has had complete control of girls' athletics.

The purpose of this organization as set before each girl who becomes a member is as follows:

"To promote interest in all snorts and physical activity of all women of Indiana State Teachers College, as a means of securing recreation, physical efficiency, scholarship, and good fellowship."

The Women's Athletic Council, which is composed of the executive members of W. A. A., meets twice each week for the discussion of the policies of the organization. There is also a faculty advisory board which supervises all affairs pertaining to the interests of the Association. During the regular monthly business meetings, programs, prepared by members are presented.

Each quarter heads of sports are chosen to take charge of the various sports and activities. The school year is divided into four seasons, a fall, two winter, and a spring. During the fall season the sports offered are: hockey, tennis, horseshoes, and swimming for both advanced and beginning swimmers. In the winter seasons are offered: basket-ball, swimming, life-saving, and volley ball. In the spring, tennis, baseball, archery, horseshoes and track are offered as outdoor sports, and swimming for indoors. Tournaments are held in each stort. At the close of each season, there is a jamboree at which time the awards earned in that season are presented. There are a number of organized hikes and last year long-distance hiking was sponsored by Mr. Uhler. Since the school lodge has been built and some furniture has been supplied by the W. A. A., there should be a desire to hike there in the future.

The W. A. A. has adopted a point system whereby girls who participate in W. A. IA. sports and activities receive a specified number of points. A class number is given for the first two hundred points. For each two hundred additional points, chevrons are awarded. The "I' is awarded for one thousand points. This insignia is presented at the Annual Athletic Banquet which is an all-college function.

The celebration of May Day, last year, was terminated by crowning the Queen of the May as president of the organization.

EDWIN ARLINGTON ROBINSON POETRY CLUB

Although the Edwin Arlington Robinson Poetry Club was formally organized in 1927 under the direction of Miss Carrie Belle Parks, it was already in existence spontaneously and anonymously in 1925 and in 1926 through acquaintance with the late Dorothy Little, a writer and former teacher at this college. Since 1927 it has established several traditions: the enjoyment of poetry in a very informal and social group, meeting in the hospitable Y. W. C. A. Room; encouragement to write poetry, though such creative work is never made a qualification for membership; the use of practically all of the money collected in Soom membership dues for a cumulative library of poetry available for members; a dinner meeting before Christmas, and a meeting before graduation, at which Robinson's Tristram is annually read.

A different series of programs is developed every year, with the result that many students have belonged two, three, or even four years. The club is especially valuable to two-year-students and to otherwhose curricula may not include courses in which poetry is given. All English majors are urged by their department to include Poetry Club among their English extra-curricular activities for at least one year. This is a club which enjoys the distinction of being at all times equally of social, professional, and cultural value to all its members.

DEPARTMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS ART CLUB

This is one of the newer and smaller clubs, but its size, sixty members, has never deterred it from large undertakings. It was founded in 1925 for the purpose of stimulating and directing permanent interest in things artistic, besides giving art students and faculty members opportunity to fraternize.

It has one informal and one formal social function each semester, and one business meeting each month. At the latter some of the best talent of town, faculty and student body, has been heard in music, fine arts, literature, and general culture.

For 1931-32, the club voted to have only one formal banquet at the Indiana Country Club in May. At this time the Jean R. McElhaney Award medal for excellence in fine arts was given for the firt time by the club.

The meetings, which are held the third Tuesday of every month after the opening of school in September, are planned by the members of the club. Some of them are educational while others are social. The latter include teas, hikes, picnics, banquets, and a May Day Breakfast.

"The Club Song" written by a promiuent local musician, and which has been published, is sung at every meeting.

The club has purchased a picture for the department and a studio type picto for use in the department.

to ics applicable to the work.

The social activities of the organization are numerous. They furnish means of becoming better acquainted with one another and contribute to the social development and recreation of those who participate. Each spring and fall an outing is held and several dances and parties are given throughout the year.

SECONDARY EDUCATION CLUB

In accordance with the change in curricula made last year, the former Junior-Senior High School Club has become the Secondary Education Club, the organization of those students who are preparing to teach in the secondary field of education. Since 1925 when the club was organized, it has had a three-fold purpose: educational attainment, social understanding and political unity. At the several social functions during the year, freshmen have been welcomed in the attempt to weld the club into a harmonious unit through friendship and mutual understanding.

At the monthly assembles instead of speakers or entertainers outside of the club, the various departments have had charge of the programs. Through these departmental assemblies, students are given the opportunity to demonstrate their abilities and talents.

THE ELEMENTARY DEGREE CLUB

The Elementary Degree Club, under the leadership of Louise G. Walsh, its sponsor, has grown rapidly in membership, influence, and achievement in the four years of its existence at Indiana. It was founded in 1929 in recognition of the great demand for teachers of advanced training

In the elementary schools. In the term of 1929-1930, there were twelve members of the club, seven of whom were seniors. The term of 1930-1931 found this number more than doubled with forty members, sixteen of whom were seniors. During the term of 1931-1932, the membership increased to sixty-four with only seven seniors. The numbers were so large during this last year that Carrie B. Parks was appointed Freshmen adviser while Louise G. Walsh advises the upperclassmen. All graduates hold responsible positions in public school systems throughout the state. Two of them are doing critic work.

With such a marked growth in the past four years, there are high expectations that some day this Elementary Degree Club will be one of the largest organizations on this campus for the betterment of advanced training of teachers for the elementary schools.

Membership in the Senior Band is limited to those students who have developed a technique and musicianship sufficient to participate in the performance of an advanced type of concert music. Any student in school is eligible for membership in this organization if accepted by the director. Membership in the Junior Band affords an excellent opportunity for students to gain experience in ensemble work. Eligibility to the organization is the same as for the Senior Band. Mr. E. F. Sullivan directs both bands.

Men's Glee Club

This organization is open to men from all departments, subject to a tryout with the director. It appears several times during the year at various college functions. Men who enjoy group singing of the rather informal type are invited to tryout with Miss Borge.

Orchestra

The College Orchestra is of symphonic proportions. Any student is eligible to membership if accepted by the director. This organization uses a high type of music, as evidenced in its annual spring concert, and furnishes an excellent opportunity for any student of an orchestral instrument to further his knowledge and practice in this activity. Students having previous orchestral experience are invited to make application for membership to the Director of the Music Department.

The Mixed Chorus

This organization uses both secular and sacred music and offers unusual opportunity for a comprehensive growth in choral singing. Students are invited to apply to the Director of the Music Department for membership in this organization.

MOTHER GOOSE CLUB

The Mother Goose Club was organized during the school year 1927-1928, under the sponsorship of Miss Margaret Lemon, and is composed of seniors of the Primary and Intermediate Groups and any irregular students of the college taking work in either of the literature classes.

'The purpose of the organization is to encourage and further an interest in children's literature and to enable members to profit by group discussion of such literature.

The weekly meetings of the club have been vitalized by plays, pictures, pantomimes, story-telling, and story-reading. The programs are conducted by members of the club.

Each spring and fall an outing is held. These social activities furnish means of becoming better acquainted with one another and contribute to the social development and recreation of those who participate.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The Mathematics Club was not organized until December, 1930, which makes it one of the younger organizations on the campus.

Its meetings combine both recreation and practical help for prospective mathematics teachers. Last year the club was instrumental in securing Dr. Leo J. Brueckner, of the University of Minnesota, as a speaker for its April meeting.

The membership is limited to science majors, and all are encouraged to take advantage of the club privileges and ad-

ATHLETICS

PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR MEN

Indiana is exceptionally fortunate in equipment, facilities and instructional staff for carrying out a varied and comprehensive program of intramural and varsity athletics. The advantages just indicated that become the privilege of the boy at Indiana surpass those of most of the colleges in the state.

Virile activities such as football, basketball, baseball, and track, are promoted to satisfy the needs of the boy while in school and activities with a carry-over value including tennis, handball, swimming, scouting, fencing, and archery that are taught for leisure-time recreation.

Wise provisions are made to give the student the kind of education through the thysical that will enable him to meet the requirements insisted upon by superintendents of schools at the time the prospective teacher makes an application for a job.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS FOR MEN

Indiana believes in Varsity athletics, and every man in college is encouraged to try for at least one Varsity team. However, to provide for those of limited time or ability the intramural program of athletics furnishes an opportunity for every man to engage in the various sports on nearly equal terms with other competitors with a minimum loss of time and maximum benefits to be derived from athletic competition. Leagues, tournaments and meets are organized among our own students, and it is hoped that every man will take part in as many activities as possible.

In addition to the educational, social, recreational, and health values from intramurals there is the professional value. Many of our students are able to secure better positions because of a knowledge of the various games and the ability to coach them.

The program of sports for the year is as follows:

Fall-Tennis, Speedball.

Winter—Basketball, Foulshooting, Volleyball, Boxing.

Spring-Swimming, Horseshoes, Playground ball.

VARSITY "I" CLUB

As the name implies, this club consists of those men who have won the "I" in any major sport, and of the male faculty members who are on the Athletic Council.

The purpose of the Club is five-fold:

- 1. To promote brotherhood among the athletes in college.
 - 2. To promote clean athletics.3. To promote school spirit.
- 4. To interest athletes to enter our school.
- 5. To foster qualified scholastic standing.

(In connection with this last point there is a standing committee whose duty it is to keep track of the scholastic work of the club members and investigate any failures or low marks.)

The officers of the club consist of a president, vice president, chief scribe, and treasurer. They all hold office for one year.

The organization has been self-supporting throughout its history. It is distinctly against professionalism and subsidized athletics.

Requirements for Awarding the "I"

1. No letter shall be awarded except when duly authorized by the athletic committee.

2. No letter except that duly authorized and awarded by the athletic committee shall be worn by any student.

3. That certificates in each sport be awarded with the letter to protect the students from such infringement.

4. The varsity "I" shall be an eight-inch, red, block, chinele letter, on gray felt background.

5. The class numerals shall be two-inch,

6. The tennis letter shall be a six-inch, red, block, chinele letter on gray felt background.

7. The cross country letter shall be a six-inch, red, block, chinele letter on gray felt background.

S. Managers of teams shall receive the eight-inch varsity "I" with a gray megaphone in the base of the "I".

9. The manager of boys' intramurals shall be awarded a six-inch, red, block, chinele letter with a monogram in the base of the letter.

10. The second varsity letter earned in any sport will have a diagonal service bar of gray across the center of the letter. Two service bars will designate the third letter; three service bars the fourth letter.

Eligibility for Football "I"

1. Any player who participates in 16 or more quarters, or,

2. Any player who plays in the Slippery Rock game, shall be eligible to the Varsity "I".

Eiigibility for Basketball "I"

1. Any player who participates in one half of the inter-Normal School or Teachers College games, or,

2. Any player who participates in a championship or intersectional game, shall be eligible for the varsity "I".

Eligibility for Track "I"

1. Any athlete who breaks an outdoor record at a regular meet, or,

2. Any runner on a relay team that wins at the Penn Relays, or,

3. Any athlete who wins a first place in any event at the Penn Relays, or,

4. Any athlete who wins two first or 10 points in dual or other meets during the season shall be eligible for the varsity letter.

Eligibility for Cross Country "I"

1. Any runner winning a minimum of five points, or,

2. Any runner winning a first place in any meet, or,

3. Any runner winning two second places or,

4. Any runner winning a second and third place.

REQUIREMENTS FOR LETTERS AND SERVICE AWARDS

Football

This award shall be a medium-sized gold football with a raised maroon enamel block letter, I, with boy's name below and year above, with position on back.

Basketball

This award shall be a medium-sized gold basketball with a raised maroon enamel block letter, I.

Track

This award shall be a small gold track shoe with a raised maroon enamel block letter, I.

Cross Country

This award shall be a small gold winged foot.

THE ANNUAL ATHLETIC DINNER

In 1930, the Athletic Council conceived the idea of the athletic dinner to which the entire school and faculty could be invited. The purpose of this dinner was to combine the several athletic banquets into one annual event, at which time the entire school might enjoy the spirit and enthusiasm so characteristic of Indiana's athletic teams. For this annual event, speakers of national reputation have been engaged. At this time letters, certificates, and awards earned by the members of the varsity teams, the Women's Athletic Association, and the intramural athletic activities, are awarded.

Our rapid industrial development has brought about an increase of leisure time. That we become educated, in the ways and means of making a wise use of this increasing leisure, is one of the challenges of our changing civilization.

We are convinced that this annual dinner has become another of Indiana's worthwhile traditions, and contributes its full share in building desirable attitudes toward the wise use of our increased leisure.

SONGS

Alma Mater

To our noble Alma Mater's name, We, her children, sing a joyful lay, And to her a new allegiance pledge, That lives beyond a day.

Refrain

Sing, oh sing! our Alma Mater's praise, Hail, oh hail! her color's gleaming hue! Give to her our homage and our love And to her Name be true.

A pray'r for her who shelter'd us, A hope no child her name will stain, A cheer thrice giv'n with hearty voice, And now the sweet refrain. Of Loyalty are symbols twain, Her colors, crimson and the gray, "Dear Indiana Mother Fair." The burden of our lay.

Words and music by Mrs. Hamlin E. Cogswell.

Spirit of Indiana

On! On! On! On to victory.

Everyone expects to see you win today. Fight to win! "Play the game square"! Always for your Alma Mater do and dare!

Now then go! Give them not a show. You have skill and daring, that we know,

For not only will you score, but will add a few points more,

Just to show them how we do at Indiana.

Indiana, don't you hear our cheer?

That you'll honor us we have no fear. See your pennant floating o'er the field! Unto foeman you will never yield.

You will hear us as we shout and sing, With your praises will the welkin ring.

Other teams will know their fate.

When they meet the "Red and Slate." It's the way we always do at Indiana.

Victory! Victory! Victory! With your faces ever towards the foe. Victory! Victory! Victory! Pressing forward down the field you go! Victory! Victory! Victory!

Every man is finding every play,

For 'tis written on your shield, "Unto foeman never yield."

We will always do our best for Indiana. Words—Mrs. Hamlin E. Cogswell. Music—Mr. Hamlin E. Cogswell.

Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania, my native state, To you we pledge our devotion. Pennsylvania, our loyalty is boundless as the ocean.

Refrain

Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, strong and true,

Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, hear our song to you,

There is beauty in your mountains, There is peace upon your hills, And where're I roam My only home is Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania, we thrill with pride To be your loyal descendants, Pennsylvania, all hail to you, The foundation of independence.

School Song

Come and join our song of triumph;
Bring to Indiana's fame
Laurels of each new endeavor
That will glorify her name.
Forward then for Indiana!
Make these hills and valleys ring.
Lift her crimson and her silver gray
Honor to your Alma Mater bring.
Come, ye sons and daughters of her heart,
Each to his own valiant part.

Fight till you've won,
Then, the strife of battle done,
Sing, sing on for Indiana!

—Evelyn Jones,

The Beacon Light

In the ages long departed
Slowly grew the need for light;
Beacons now illume each highroad
Showing ways of Truth and Right.
Years ago our Indiana
Raised her tower to the sky,

Here a glowing beacon lifted Kindling hearts to purpose high.

Chorus

Then it's hail to Indiana!
From the East to boundless West,
Never burned a beacon brighter,

Never was a way more blest For the far off goal of learning;

We who seek and catch her beam, Send it forth to darkened byways In an ever-widening stream.

Our forefathers found the trail here
Blazed where red men softly trod,
Patiently subdued the forest,
Plowed and sowed the virgin sod;
And at last from labors lessened

Looked they upward for the light Flaming from the beacon tower Where our College crowns the height.

> Words-Margaret Hawkins. Music-Carolyn Gessler.

Follow the Gleam

To the knights in the days of old, Keeping watch on the mountain heights, Came a vision of Holy Grail, And a voice through the waiting night,

Follow, follow, follow the gleam Banners unfurled o'er all the world Follow, follow, follow the gleam Of the chalice that is the Grail.

And he who would serve the King, And loyally Him obey In the consecrate silence know That the challenge still holds today.

Follow, follow, follow the gleam Standards of worth o'er all the earth Follow, follow, follow the gleam Of the light that shall bring the dawn.
